Luminate Sandringham

Anglesey Abbey (NT)

Anglesey Abbey lends itself to Christmas and is an enchanting time to visit as the house is adorned with festive decorations and visitors can stroll around the atmospheric sensory winter garden or enjoy some gift shopping.

Holkham Hall

A delightful time to visit the magnificent eighteenth-century Palladian Hall, Holkham Hall is home to the Earls of Leicester and surrounded by rolling parkland. The ornate state rooms with spectacular art collections are beautifully decorated for Christmas. For festive shopping, there's a fun Christmas Market in the grounds with alpine style chalets selling tempting food, drinks and gifts and live music to get everyone into the Christmas spirit.

Luminate Sandringham

Is a magical light trail through the beautiful Royal parkland of the Sandringham Estate with breath-taking new installations this year along a mile-long trail with stunning lighting and fabulous interactive light play, all set to music. An enchanting festive experience for all, warming hot food and drinks are on offer in the courtyard and trail. Please note: The House is not open at this time of year and therefore admission to the house is NOT included.

Gainsborough's House

Gainsborough's House combines the childhood home of one of Britain's greatest ever artists, Thomas Gainsborough with a magnificent collection of his life's work. A Grade I-listed eighteenth-century merchant house and historic garden, Gainsborough's oil paintings, works on paper and artefacts are on permanent display.
